

SCOTT MANN

RET. ARMY LT. COL. AND GREEN BERET

Current Topics of Interest and Areas of Expertise:

- The U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan
- Unique perspective on the Taliban and their threat
- Airstrikes in Afghanistan and their effect on Afghan citizens
- Political leadership surrounding the decision to leave the region
- Current state of Afghanistan and its Civil War
- U.S. military and government leadership
- Cost of war for servicemembers and their families
- Stability in the Middle East
- Firsthand perspective on the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan
- Building trust in high-risk, conflict zones
- Producer and star of "Last Out: Elegy of a Green Beret" film

WHY SCOTT MANN?

While serving as a Green Beret, Scott had the opportunity to not only train and embed with the Afghanistan Army, he built trusted relationships with some of the country's most respected citizens. For nearly two decades, Scott drove forward high-impact missions in some of the most dangerous parts of the world, including Columbia, Ecuador, Peru, Panama, Iraq, and Afghanistan. He deployed multiple times with three of those tours in Afghanistan. He has been featured on:

Bloomberg

BIO:

Scott Mann is the President of Rooftop Leadership, a leadership consulting and training company in Tampa, Florida and Co-Founder of the Heroes Journey, a 501(c)(3) dedicated to helping Veterans and Military Families find their voice and tell their story as they transition out of military service. As a former Army Green Beret with multiple combat tours to Afghanistan and Iraq, Scott takes the lessons from working in low-trust conflict zones to help leaders find ways to build relationships and tell stories that bridge the human trust gaps we all face today. Scott has appeared on numerous TV, Radio, and Podcast media platforms to include CNN, Fox, all the major networks and syndicated radio. Scott is also a playwright and actor currently bringing his award-winning play "Last Out - Elegy of a Green Beret" to life as a major film for limited release on 9/11 and national release on Veterans Day 2021.

FOR BOOKING:

ELIZABETH COLE

EC PUBLICITY, LLC

(615) 525 7757

elizabeth@ecpublicity.com